

State of Maine Judicial Branch
FAMILY LAW MAGISTRATE

APPLICATION DEADLINE: December 14th, 2015.

The State of Maine Judicial Branch is seeking two qualified individuals to serve as Family Law Magistrates (FLMs) in the Maine District Court's Family Division. The successful applicants will be primarily assigned to Androscoggin, Franklin, Oxford, Bridgton, Waldo, Knox, Lincoln, Sagadahoc, and occasionally Somerset and Kennebec, but may be assigned anywhere in the state.

Family Law Magistrates perform work in compliance with the provisions of 4 M.R.S.A. § 183 and rules promulgated by the Supreme Judicial Court. In proceedings on the domestic relations calendar involving minor children, FLMs may conduct case management conferences, issue interim and final child support orders and orders in child support enforcement actions, and may decide other matters when the proceeding is uncontested or with the consent of both parties.

Qualifications include current admission to the Maine Bar; substantial experience, knowledge and training in family law; strong decision-making skills; and excellent oral and written communication skills. Additionally, experience, knowledge or training in case management, mediation and other alternative dispute resolution techniques, domestic violence, child development, and family dynamics is preferred. Family Law Magistrates are subject to the Maine Code of Judicial Conduct.

The value of the State's biweekly contribution for employee benefits is as follows: Health Insurance $357.85; Dental Insurance $13.13; and Retirement is 14.99% of salary. EOE/AA.
